Hugoton, Okla 73860

IN MEMORY OF OUR SISTER GRACE WESSELS POTTER

Grace Wessels was born at Cherokee, Oklahoma on June 21, 1911 to Ado Wessels and his wife Mary Agnes Gerrels. She went to Locust Grove Grade School and Cherokee High School. She attended Northwestern Oklahoma State University which was then Northwestern Normal. She earned a Life Certificate which took two years and began a teaching career at Sunnyside located two and one-half miles east of Cherokee.

December 25, 1930 she married Raymond Burdell Potter at Arkansas City, Kansas. His father was Edward R. Potter a veteran of the Spanish American War serving with Roosevelt's Rough Riders. His Mother, Grace Dimmick came with her father when he made the "Run" into the Cherokee Strip settling near Alva.

During the depression of the Thirties she taught at Prairie Valley and then at Lincoln Center both south of Cherokee. Her husband, a butcher by trade, was employed by Coury's Grocery in Waynoka so she then moved to Waynoka to teach in Woods County. She taught at Bethel School and at West Liberty.

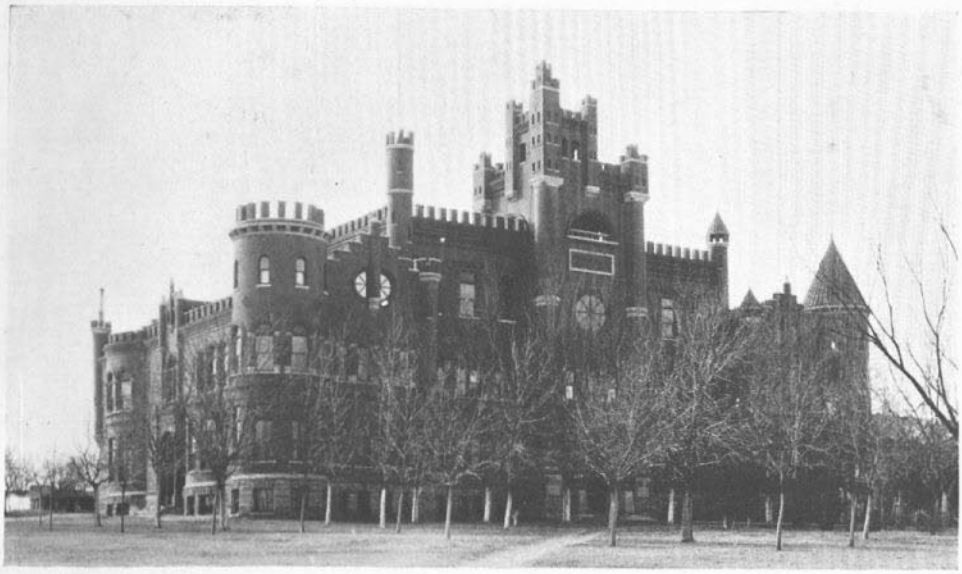

She managed the Zenith Gas Office in Waynoka during World War II at which time Raymond was in the European Theater of War and was in the Battle of the Bulge.

There being a shortage of elementary teachers in the Forties she went back to teaching in the Waynoka City School System and taught more than twenty years before her retirement. She took a leave of absence in 1948 to return to Northwestern and earned a bachelor degree later earning a Master of Teaching Degree. She was a Life Member of Oklahoma Education Association and the National Educational Association. A member of Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma and NWOSU Alumni Association. A member of the National, Oklahoma, Woods County and Waynoka Retired Teachers Associations.

Grace was a talented creative person. Many received gifts of ceramics which she made in her home. Her handmade pieced quilts were outstanding in quality and workmanship. Her greenhouse and yard grew plants of all varieties and were shared by all. She gave freely of her time in playing the piano or organ for most any occasion.

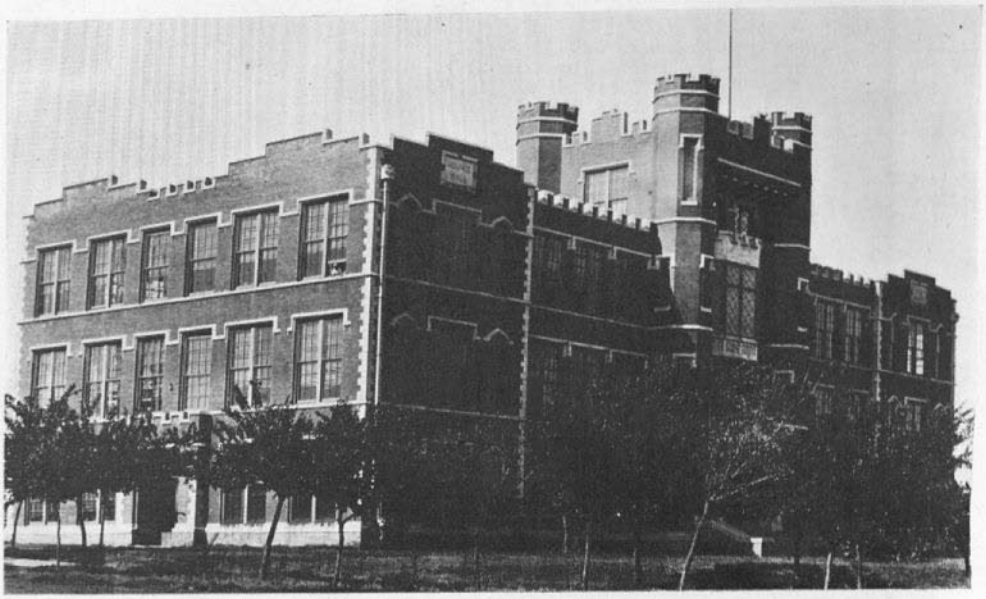

Grace was a member of the First Christian Church of Waynoka where she was organist, teacher, church treasurer and worked in the women's organizations. Her God and her Church were her strength and support after the death of her husband in November 176. Grace passed away Dec. 15th, 1978.

She was also a member of the Waynoka Saddle Club, Waynoka Chamber of Commerce, American Legion Auxiliary, Lone Star Extension Club, Cherokee Strip Volunteer League, Okan Rabbit Club and the Woods County Poultry Federation.

Dedication

To Miss Minnie Shockley, Dean of Women in appreciation of her sincere interest in the welfare of the students.

This Volume of The Ranger is respectfully dedicated.

Miss Minnie Shockley

Dean of Women

J. P. Battenberg, President.

President Battenberg came to the helm of Northwestern in 1919. During the six years of his administration he has come to be numbered among their friends by a host of students.

His genial disposition and efficiency as a school executive will long be an inspiration to those students who go out from Northwestern this year to take their places in the affairs of the state.

The staff feels that they are voicing the sentiment of the entire student body and the alumni when we express the firm belief that succeeding years under his administration will be even more beneficial for the school than the past.

IN HONOR OF

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA SORORITY

At the beginning of the annual sales campaign, the Staff offered special recognition to the organization securing the largest number of subscriptions to The Ranger. A check up of sales records at the close of the campaign showed that this honor goes to the

Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority

The 1925 Ranger Staff takes pleasure in acknowledging by means of this honor page, their indebtedness to the Tri-Sigma Sorority for their invaluable help and co-operation.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Mina Mae Hudson bequeaths all her collegiate sport clothes to Alberta Woodward. (Might use 'em for doll clothes.)

Albert Becker bequeaths his many refined and manly characteristics and sweet disposition to James Z. Martin.

Wineva Fanning bequeaths her fiance to Ruth Arthur. (Take good care of him Ruth, he's wonderful and precious.)

Anna Eller bequeaths her text on "Beauty Hints," together with a sample jar of beauty cream to anyone.

Mrs. Battenberg wills to Juanita Smith "her gift o' gab."

Marcus Webster wills to Mort Welch his social duties and all social engagements after May 22, 1925.

Ethel Samuel Crump bequeaths to G. C. Jackson, one # 1 Spencerian.

Mildred Ritchey bequeaths her secret formula for red hair to Helen Pangburn.

Hazel Simon bequeaths to Wayne Ballard her precious chum, Adah Mae Galbreath.

Edythe Stowe bequeaths her ability as a solo dancer to all lovers of the art.

Opal Trever and Alice Taylor jointly and individually bequeath their ungodly racket to Brooks Bicknell.

Gladys Rice bequeaths her power to remain silent to Vida Davis.

Ruth Wheatley bequeaths to Juanita Smith her ability to live without talking.

Greta Wilkinson bequeaths to Buick Auto Corporation her patented trade-mark "When Better Bodies Are Built, Buick Will Build Them."

John Abboud bequeaths to Prof. "Pat" Patterson, his beloved pipe. (Hold your nose Pat.)

Mayme Reid bequeaths her "Lessons in Reducing" to anyone having a good phonograph.

Margaret East bequeaths her ability to be positive or to remember anything to Opal Burket.

Frank Reid joins in the bequest of his wife, Mayme Reid. (Quod vide.)

John Hobbes bequeaths "The Firecracker of Capron High to Orville Cameron and Glenn Morris.

Phillips Noah bequeaths to any who may desire the same, his histrionic ability, especially in Negro Minstrel selections, his supple grace and sense of rhythm.

James C. Ryan bequeaths to Eugene Ellis, all and sundry his various hats (especially derbies) to enable the aforesaid Ellis to better portray the Yiddish character.

Kate Bilyeu bequeaths to those appointed on committees (although appointed thereon) and making the rest do the work while she takes the honor.

Amata Camp and Vella Frazee, jointly, bequeath to would-be vaudevilists, their ability as interpreters of the "Highland Fling."

George Baxter bequeaths to Signor John McCormick, tenor, his superb vocal ability, less, of course, his ability to read music, not knowing anything about that.

William Carpenter bequeaths his patented "mustache grower" to Floyd Ames.

Mary Ann Collins gives and bequeaths to Margaret Talley her "dating" ability.

George Clark bequeaths to Historical Society of N. S. T. C. his medals, cups and ribbons won in athletic contests.

Everett Cosart devises to Irvin Smeltzer his K. P. talents.

Arthur Criswell devises all gambling paraphernalia to Nellie Drake.

Mildred Frei bequeaths her spring hat to Mae Roberson.

Earl Heaton bequeaths his set of boxing gloves to Orville Cameron. (You'll need 'em, Orville, after this Ranger comes out).

Ruth Gibler bequeaths all desire she may have had to become a nurse to Muriel Stewart. (Stick to teaching, Muriel, it's not near so hard).

Fred Drake gives, devises and bequeaths to all subalterns his service stripes, chevrons, epaulets, sword, John Brown belt and all other official insignia of his rank in the Senior Boy Scouts, save and except his shiny brass bars.

Roy Daniel bequeaths his "Lion's Den" to N. S. T. C. for a menagerie.

Dan Eichman devises his erudite and scintillating vocabulary and pronouncing ability of the English language to Miriam Bowman.

Anna Ingle bequeaths her "Gloria Swanson bob" to Ruth Hutson.

Willis Jobes bequeaths his laziness to Omar Hill.

George Miller the shiek, bequeaths his persuasive powers, his linguistic ability, his love of adornment, his technique, his love of the beautiful and his marvelous resources to Albert Brown.

Drawing from perhaps the first year men ever seen at Northwestern Coach McCormick built, around the veterans Middleton, Ballard, Eubanks, Buckles, McKinley, Heaton and Hamburg, a football machine which proved effective thruout the entire season.

The feature of the opening game, against Canyon State Normal, was the stellar line work of McKinley and Shafer.

Reed Coldiron's ability to run a team on the field was demonstrated in the Shawnee game. This game also demonstrated that in Westfall the team had a center who was equal to all occasions.

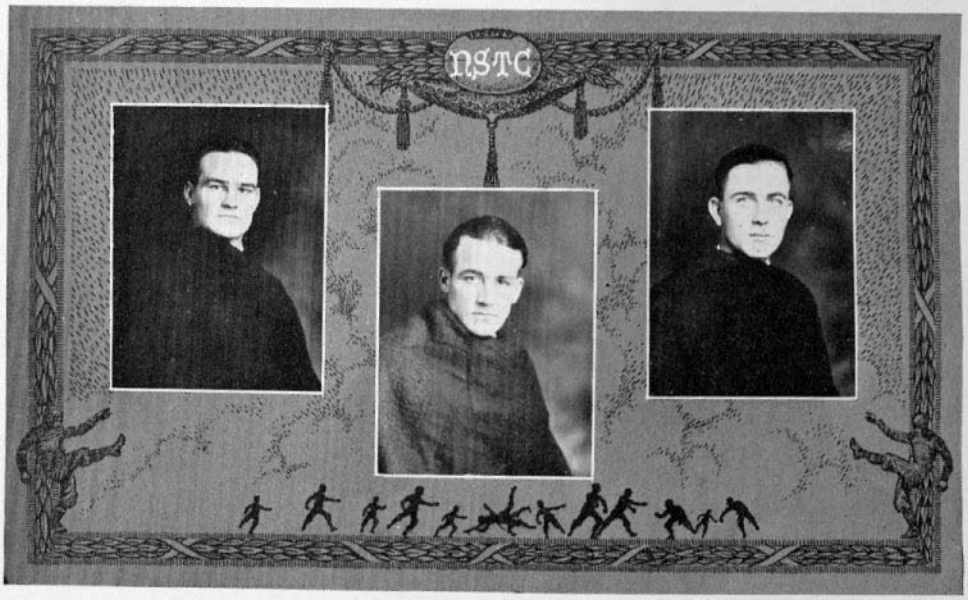

The first home game, with A. C. College, was featured by the great runs of Anglin who dodged and twisted his way thru the Kansans for five touch-downs. Hamburg's only play in this game was a thirty yard run for a touch-down, in which he received an injury which put him out of the game for the rest of the season.

The season was finished at home with Northeasterns as victims and the entire line starring.

OUR 571-STORE BUYING POWER SAVES YOU MONEY

BUYING MOST WE BUY FOR LESS— SELLING MOST WE SELL FOR LESS

QUANTITY BUYING WHICH ASSURES YOU LOWEST PRICES

Our 571 Department Stores, last year, sold enough hosiery to place a pair on the feet of every man, woman and child in New York, California, Missouri and South Dakota.

Enough knitted underwear for a suit for every inhabitant of the states of Oregon, Iowa, and North Carolina.

Nearly enough handkerchiefs for every man, woman, and child in Texas.

A Coat or dress for every woman and young Miss living in Oklahoma and Nebraska.

Shoes enough for all the feet in Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota and Utah.

A shirt for every man in Ohio, South Carolina, Washington and Wyoming.

A pair of overalls for every man and boy in New Mexico.

A yard of muslin and sheeting for every woman in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi and Pennsylvania.

A yard of gingham for every woman in Kentucky, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Virginia and West Virginia.

A yard of percale for every woman in Illinois and Louisiana.

In considering purchases from us you should remember that in our buying power you have a saving power that means the leaving of many dollars in your purse over a period of a year.

FRIENDS—

As we proceed into the year of 1925, we would call to your minds the 27th Anniversary of Northwestern State Teachers' College.

No greater gift could be awarded the people of Northwestern Oklahoma than the realization of the rapid growth of N. S. T. C. The results of the splendid influence of this school are seen in higher class of trained teachers going out of this College every year, whose excellent work has permeated and leavened the entire citizenship of this section of the state until the people of Northwest Oklahoma are the happiest, most intelligent and the best looking citizens in the state.

We hope to see Northwestern advance in the future as in the past.

Earl Heaton—"I'm only a little pebble in your life."
Inez Strong—"Well, why don't you try being a little boulder?"

Photographer—"Now look as if you were being kissed, Please."
Mary Frances, very innocent—"Before or after?"

Mrs. Percefull—"If it wasn't for we women, who would sew the buttons on your pants?"
Mr. Percy—"If it wasn't for the women, we wouldn't have to wear any pants."

Athlete: A dashing young muscle bound collegian unable to beat rugs or make a class.

TO OUR FRIENDS:

The Officers and Employees of this institution extend their sincere good wishes to the Faculty and Students, and Congratulations to the members of the Graduating classes. May Health, Happiness and Prosperity attend you.

Sincerely and Cordially,

Printing "Quality Annuals"

WE SHOW herewith one of the Stephens presses, a part of the great plant which for over thirty years has been printing school annuals. Experience has taught us that only the best of materials and workmanship must go into an annual, and so we feel that the best equipment is none too good—hence the great modern press shown below.

THE YEAR BOOK is only as good as the printing in it. Beautiful views, clever art work, and good pictures look better when properly handled on our presses by experienced half-tone printers. We are prepared and anxious to meet the exacting demands of annual staffs. Write to us before letting your contracts.

TO BLEND MENTAL AND PHYSICAL RECREATION

Mark Twain, the lovable creator of Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer, was always whole-hearted in his love of sport. The game that most endeared itself to him was billiards. To him billiards was synonymous with health and recreation. It gave him calm of spirit, freshness of mind, and invigoration of body. Daily, billiard tables in public recreation rooms witness scenes of men in all walks of life conquering the spirit of apathy and reviving their relish for clean, delightful sport.

WASHINGTON AT DINNER

George Washington usually partook of one dish, and that of a simple kind. If offered something rich, he would say, "that is too good for me." Nothing is too good for McHenrys' guests. McHenrys' cooking has the simplicity of the best American art. Its perfection is fully appreciated because its enjoyment does not require a pompous purse.

Marion Dunning:—"Just look at my hair sparkle".
Altha Baxter:—"No wonder, it's connected to a dry cell".

Jennie Humphrey:—"John, I know why you part your hair in the middle"?
John France:—"You do, why"?
Jennie:—"Because every block has an alley, you know".

The other day Art Criswell, one of Northwestern's B. B. players was driving his Lizzie down main street. When he approached a street intersection, hearing the shrill whistle of the officer indicating a change of direction, Art, (Columbus) shut off his engine, jumped out and laid down on the ground and started breathing hard. He thot the referee had called time out.

CORRECT

Prof. Griffith:—(In the middle of a bum English Recitation); "Not a student in this class is at liberty to leave till my last question has been correctly answered.
Voice: "Give me liberty or give me death".
Prof. Griffith:—"Who said that"?
Voice:—"Patrick Henry".

Abe Elliott:—"I dreamed last night I proposed to the sweetest girl in the world".
Gladys Rice:—"And what did I say"?

Irvin Smeltzer:—"Gee, I have a creepy feeling".
Homer Reynolds:—"Ghosts".
Irvin S:—"No, lice".

Agent:—"Is the head of the house in"?
Prexy:—(Calling loudly) "Mrs. Battenberg",—no answer—"yes, what did you want"?

Herschel Baxter:—"It's no wonder you're such a sissy, your Pa and Ma were married by the Justice of the Peace".
Jack Eubanks:—"From the noise coming from your house, your Pa and Ma must have been married by the Sec. of War."

Jobes in Glee Club:—"What I want to know is, am I a bass or a baritone?"
Hardy:—"No, you are not."

"Does my practicing make you nervous?" asked Orville Cameron who was learning to play a saxophone.
"It did when I first heard the neighbors discussing it," replied Patterson, who was living next door, "but I'm getting so now I don't care what happens to you."

Famous last lines:—"There's only one way to manage a mule. Walk right up in back of him and surprise him."
